

other invertebrates. Two uncommon species are found: the bog bush-cricket Metrioptera brachyptera and the keeled skimmer dragonfly Orthetrum coerulescens. These inhabit the open mire and are restricted to this type of habitat in southern Britain.